

Consultant Plastic and Cosmetic Surgeons

Paul E Banwell

BSc (Hons), MBBS, FRCS (Eng), FRCS (Plast)

'I believe a successful result in cosmetic surgery is about listening to what patients want, thinking about the best way to proceed and then creating an exciting natural, new look.'

What I do: All aspects of cosmetic surgery, including cosmetic breast surgery (enlargement, uplift and reduction), body contouring (tummy tuck and liposuction) and labiaplasty. Also non-surgical, anti-ageing procedures.

Where I trained: I qualified from St Mary's Medical School in London (1992) and then started my surgical training in top London hospitals. My extensive plastic surgery training was based in Oxford and London but I also gained invaluable experience in the latest cosmetic surgical techniques from experts in USA, Sweden, France and Australia.

Qualifications: Bachelor of Science (Honours), Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery, Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons (England), Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons (Plastic Surgery), on GMC Specialist Register (Plastic Surgery).

Where I work: Tunbridge Wells, East Grinstead, Brighton

Memberships: BAPRAS, BAAPS, ISAPS

About me: I enjoy teaching the next generation of plastic surgeons and regularly lecture around the world on all aspects of cosmetic surgery. I am also a keen surfer, skier, martial artist, tennis player and runner. In my leisure time I collect modern art, Japanese swords and study garden design.
